A SMOOTH DAY IN A SLOW LIFE

PARTNER

Idea

It's a sequence of scenes depicting the typical day of a couple & showing one possible definition of the slow life through the way they are content with their life and what it gives to them, they appreciate and contemplate the Nature, they take care of the others with empathy, they learn, share and experience. They cultivate a quality of life respecting their goodness, day after day, like a smooth flow.

Hello, we search for tasty tomatoes to prepare a salad

MARCEL 😊

I advise these old species called cyprus tomato and this one called pineapple tomato. Taste one if you want.

😊 PAOLO

Very tasty & very fresh! I think we will buy some tomatoes of each species you proposed.

MARCEL 😊

Take my recipe: prepare these tomatoes with figs, mozzarella buffala from the cheesemonger who is a friend of mine, some basil and a spoon of olive oil.

LOUISE

It sounds like a very fresh meal! Thank you for the advice.

LOUISE

Paolo, can we stop here, I want to find a new book for this week?

PAOLO

No problem, I like this place!

CHARLOTTE

Hi, can I help you?

LOUISE

I wish for a new book. A relaxing one for the next sunny week.

CHARLOTTE

I recently found F.Scott Fitzgerald "Tender is the night". It's a great story for summer. And as you can see, it's an old bookbinding publishing

LOUISE

It's a very nice book and I like its smell of old paper. But I'm afraid of the price for a bookbinding publishing!

CHARLOTTE

Don't be afraid, I only sell second hand book. So, even if it's a bookbinding publishing, it costs less than a paper back publishing.

PAOLO

And you can imagine the story of its previous owner

CHARLOTTE

I think you will love it. Come back when you finish it, and we will talk about it over a cup of tea

LOUISE

The light is perfect today! Is it Ok for you to stay without moving?

PAOLO

It's Ok, I read a good book, and I like the heat of the sun rays.

LOUISE

In this way, I'll call my picture "A man reading by a sunny afternoon"

PAOLO

It is nap time, maybe you would call your picture "A man napping by a sunny afternoon"

LOUISE

(laughing)

ORA: 21:00

Louise and Paolo are sitting at the restaurant terrace. It's a warm evening. Paolo talks to the waiter about the menu.

MARIO

Good evening, have you already take one's pick?

PAOLO

We choose two menu of the day

MARIO

It's a very good choice! The chef cooks every day a different menu depending of market products and local producers He knows well.

PAOLO

We like this way of cooking, with seasonable and fresh products

MARIO

This evening, the menu is inspired by a sunny day with refreshing vegetables and fruits and light meals. Would you drink something?

PAOLO

Yes, sure, we want a bottle of wine. But I don't know the one to choose.

MARIO

I advice you this local rosé wine, fresh and fruity. Perfect for the menu of the day.

PAOLO

OK so let's take this one.

MARIO

If you are interested in wine production, the winemaker of this one just started the grape picking.

It's nice to see it and He likes to share about his job

LOUISE 😊

It's a very good idea for tomorrow. Thank you.

😊 MARIO

No problem, and have a good meal.
